

Vale District Baker Recreation

Bob Creek Campsite

Bob Creek Campsite, located on the Oregon/Idaho border east of Baker City, offers a beautiful desert canyon experience on the banks of Hells Canyon Reservoir of the Snake River. It is a great place to take the family for a weekend or just for a day on the water.

It makes an excellent basecamp as you explore the region. Nearby attractions include the Hells Canyon National Recreation Area and Hells Canyon Dam where the wild and scenic portion of the Snake River begins. Drive to the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center near Baker City. Or visit the quaint small towns of Halfway and Richland.

Activities:	Fishing	Camping
	Water skiing	Picnicking
	Swimming	Wildlife
	Boating
	Wildlife

Facilities: The camping area has 13 primitive camp sites (max. site 45 feet long), two vault toilets, and a few picnic tables with fire rings. All campsites are first-come, first-served. An unimproved boat launch area provides access for small boats.

A day-use area offers a picnic table under the shade of a nice tree on the water's edge.

Fees: Bob Creek Campsite is a free-use area. Maximum stay is 14 days.

Season: Open year-round, most popular between April 1 – November 15.

Other: Hells Canyon Wilderness and National Recreation Area lie six miles to the north and can be accessed via the county road.

